Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The manager has a good understanding of her responsibilities to safeguard children. She knows how to make sure that staff are alert to any signs that may indicate a child protection concern. The manager regularly updates staff knowledge about the appropriate procedures to follow in the event of any such concern.
- The manager understands the importance of establishing partnerships with the schools that children attend to provide them with a range of experiences that complements their school experiences.
- The manager knows how to support staff in continuing their professional development. She knows how to help them meet the requirements of their role.
- The manager understands how to carry out self-evaluation to identify areas to strengthen. She knows how to use parents' and children's views to target improvements.
- The manager knows how to promote children's emotional and physical well-being. She knows the importance of children following good hygiene practices and eating healthy food. The manager knows how to use the key-person system to help children settle well and develop positive relationships.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The early years inspector discussed with the manager the support and activities they use with children.
- The inspector discussed requirements with the manager to check their knowledge and understanding of the early years foundation stage.
- The inspector looked at documents including policies the provider will use when caring for children and discussed self-evaluation.
- The inspector checked evidence of the suitability of staff members and discussed the support and training available to them.
